SONG LYRICS

Hey Magnolia
Is it too late to know you?
I've been gone so long
But we're still not through.
Magnolia.
Magnolia.

It's been six years now
Since I laid eyes on you
I want the world to know
How much I love you.
Magnolia.
Magnolia.

The time has come
To take back your child.
Take me back, Magnolia for a while.

I was just a little boy
When we first met
But as a man I tell you
That I'll never forget.
Magnolia.
Magnolia.

The time has come
To take back your child.
Take me back, Magnolia for a while.

Don't forget me
And I'll go away.
I'm heading up north
Where they'll hear me say
Magnolia.
Magnolia.
